

TechnoLife Wise Foundation and Mindunique Education
proudly presents

South Africa's first virtual and international Techno-impact Summit: Human Rights, Health & Happiness 16 – 22 September 2020

Format: Subject experts will be interviewed on the main themes
Two live interviews (20 min each on a virtual platform). Log-in and registration on Zoom for daily sessions are open from 14:30 - 15:00. Sessions start at 15:00 and 15:30.

FREE tickets/access available for every day's interviews. Click here to register.

Date	Time	Topic	Interviewee
Wednesday 16 September	15:00	Brain and body development of babies and children	Dr Melodie de Jager: CEO and Founder: MindMoves and Baby Gym Institute
	15:30	Sensory integration and occupational performance	Ray Anne Cook: Occupational Therapist and Board member of the South African Institute for Sensory Intelligence
Thursday 17 September	15:00	Electronic Screen Syndrome (ESS), ADHD and Autism Spectrum Disorder	Ms Juliana Freeme: Occupational Therapist Neurodevelopment
	15:30	Relationships and creativity	Ms Lien Potgieter: Creativity and Colour specialist
Friday 18 September	15:00	Posture and impact on your health and happiness	Dr Travis Mitchell & Dr Janique Belli: Chiropractitioners @ Aspire Happiness
	15:30	Integrated physical development and stress	Ms Mariska Odendaal: Physiotherapist
Monday 21 September	15:00	Vision health	Prof Jannie Ferreira: Optometrist @ JFT Optometrist
	15:30	Electro-hypersensitivity (EHS)	Ms Alaythea Hamlyn: Chemist and independent medical researcher
Tuesday 22 September	15:00	EMF, Human Rights, legislation & international perspectives	Mr Braam Botha: Human Rights Lawyer (Busy with LLD)
	15:30	Electro-pollution, WoWe® products and mitigation strategies against (EMF) radiation	Dr Marlena Kruger: CEO, MindUnique Education and TechnoLife Wise Foundation
22 September		EMF Radiation Safety Day	Michael Faraday - Born in 1791
Saturday 26 September		International 5G Protest Day: Campaigns to raise awareness about the harmful impact of electro-pollution from more cell phones, towers and 5G	TechnoLife Wise Foundation – please complete contact form to become part of movement against electro-pollution and further roll-out of 5G